Discreet personal concierge for private buyers

Support for a single appointment, a full viewing day or a return visit.

From arrival to the first viewing

We can meet you at the airport or station, coordinate your chauffeur and accommodation, and plan onward travel around the appointments your agent has booked.

A dedicated point of contact

We can accompany you between viewings, handle reservations and respond when plans change. The same support is available for a completion-day handover.

Discreet support, agreed in advance

We work alongside your agent and existing suppliers. You can choose support behind the scenes or in person, with close protection available on request.
